

About Schindler Timeline through the Schindler History

The Schindler story

In its more than 140-year history, Schindler has grown from a local manufacturer of machines into a global elevator and escalator business. On the way, it has shaped the industry, defined best practice as a mobility provider and as an employer, and prospered in a highly competitive global environment.

Schindler

1874:
FOUNDED IN LUCERNE

1957:
NEW HEAD-QUARTER

1874
Robert Schindler and Eduard Villiger establish the collective joint partnership Schindler & Villiger.

1883
Move to the newly built plant at Sentimattstrasse in Lucerne, Switzerland.

1892
The first electric elevator with belt drive is built.

1906
Schindler & Cie. o.H.G., the first subsidiary outside of Switzerland, is established in Berlin.

1915
Schindler starts production of elevator motors.

1929
PARS Finanz AG in Hergiswil, Switzerland, is founded.

1936
Schindler installs its first escalator.

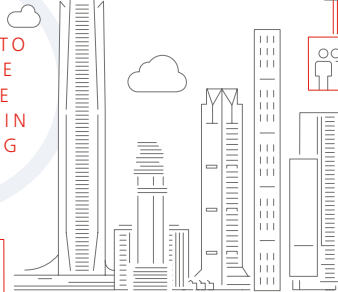

1957
Transfer to new headquarters in Ebikon.

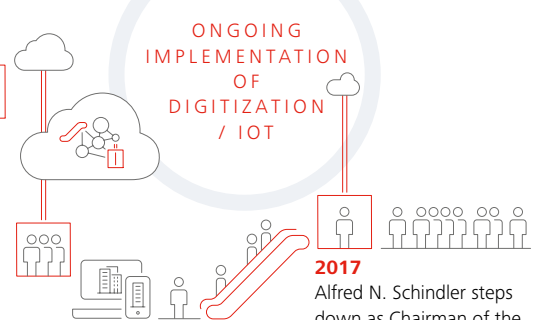

1980:
SCHINDLER GOES TO CHINA

2005:
CONTRACT TO SUPPLY THE 490-METRE
ICC-TOWER IN HONG KONG

ONGOING
IMPLEMENTATION OF DIGITIZATION
/ IOT

1971
Trading in shares of Schindler Holding AG on the main Zurich Stock Exchange begins.

1980
First industrial joint venture of the People's Republic of China with a western company. China Schindler Elevator Co. is established in Beijing.

1985
Alfred N. Schindler, Luc Bonnard and Dr. Uli Sigg are elected executive directors and take over the management of the company.

1990
Launch of the world's first hall call destination system, Miconic 10.

2009
Introduction of Transit Management System, the PORT Technology.

2014
Opening of new factories in China and India.

2016
Schindler enters strategic partnership with GE Digital and Huawei.

2017
Alfred N. Schindler steps down as Chairman of the Schindler Holding Ltd.. Silvio Napoli becomes new Chairman of the Board of Directors.

